CLASSIC COCKTAILS

We have carefully chosen a range of classic cocktails, ones that we believe are the best creations of evolving recipes, over many years. We hope you enjoy.....

Bramble A pretty little concoction you'd happily imagine sipping, in a typical, British, country garden. Raspberry flavours cascade through the gins juniper, coriander and citrusy spice, leaving you dreaming of the countryside. £7.25	Cosmopolitan This vivacious little drink is full of fruity flavours! Lemon, cranberry, orange and lime are all woven together, with a good measure of vodka, to create this "Sex in the City" favourite. £7.45	Daiquiri Hemmingway's favourite tippie is brought to you by shaking together fresh lime juice, sugars and Bacardi superior rum. £5.75
Negroni A fusion of dry and aromatic gin, sweet and herby vermouth and spicy, bitter orange flavours. A delightful 1920's favourite. £5.75	Old Fashioned As the name suggests, this vintage cocktail has been in existence for around 130 years. Dry, spicy rye whisky and sugars are stirred with bitters and orange zest, to present you with this refined classic. £6.55	Whisky Sour Combining a smooth and rich, blended malt scotch whisky, with sugar and lemon, it's easy to see why this formula has remained untouched over the last 150 years. £7.65
Espresso Martini A beautiful, dark and smooth partnership of vodka and sweet, coffee flavours. A perfect "pick me up" for any occasion. £5.75	Mai Tai This tropical blend of white and dark rum, combined with orange, lime and almond flavours, will leave you thinking "Mai Tai-Roa Ae" ("out of this world - the best" in Tahitian). £6.45	Bloody Mary This firm favourite sees the delicious combination of vodka, tomato juice, a dash of spice and a little seasoning. Particularly enjoyed on a Sunday, alongside a roast dinner, or great on its own, as something a little different. £6.25
Moscow Mule Combining the purity and clarity of vodka, the warm, spiciness of ginger and the zestiness of the lime, we present you with this 1946 classic, served in the traditional copper cup. £6.55	Manhattan Allegedly created back in 1874 at the Manhattan Club in New York. We make ours by carefully stirring together smooth, strong, bourbon, sweet martini rosso and a splash of angostura bitters. £6.75
Martini The uplifting freshness of tanqueray gin, combined with the crisp, dryness of martini and the twist of lemon zest, remind you why the Martini, is the undisputed King of the cocktail world. £5.75	Margarita A bold and delicious combination of sweet and sharp, in a salt rimmed glass. We mix 100% agave tequila, with lime and sweet orangey flavours. £6.75
Singapore Sling Created in the opulent Hotel Raffles in Singapore back in around in 1915, this delicious blend of gin, herbs, spices and cherry flavours, brings a little taste of Asia, here to the shores of Brighton. £6.25
